Priest Scores Autoists.

CHICAGO, NOV. 15.—Rev. Father P. J. McDonnell, of St. Mel's Roman Catholic Church, ended an appeal for the most stringent action against "automobile criminals," made to the West Park Board yesterday, by declaring that a man would be justified in killing the "criminal autoist who would crush out his life."

Japs In Peking for Conference

PEKING, Nov. 15.—The Japanese envoys will be given an audience to-morrow by the Emperor, and the conference will open Friday by the exchange of credentials. The greatest reticence is maintained on both sides, and even well-informed diplomats can only speculate on the probable result of the conference.

Monument to Pocohontas.

RICHMOND, VA., Nov. 15.—The directors of the Jamestown Exposition Company have donated a site on the proposed exposition grounds for a monument to the memory of Pocohontas, the Indian Princess. The shaft is to be erected by a western man named Davis, whose wife is a Virginian and a lineal descendant from King Powhatan's famous daughter.

Rich Man a Trolley Victim.

PHILADELPHIA, NOV. 15.—Harry C. Champion, 65 years old, head of the wholesale drug firm of J. W. Champion & Co., and a member of the Union League, died in a hospital to-day as a result of injuries received last night by being run over by a trolley car.

Fire Wipes Out Town.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Nov. 14.—The town of Burk, in McDowell County, has been destroyed by fire. Burk is a mining community of 3,000 population about 150 miles from here. More than 100 buildings were destroyed.

Killed Father and Stepmother

CHANDLER, ALA., Nov. 15.—John Andrews, who has been on trial for ten days for the murder of his father and stepmother, has been found guilty of murder in the first degree and given a life sentence.

Oyama to Report on War.

TOKIO, Nov. 15.—Replying to an Imperial message ordering him to speedily return to Tokyo and render a personal report of the recent war, Field Marshal Oyama has named Nov. 15 as the date of his departure from Manchuria.

Killed Brother and Himself.

LOS ANGELES, CAL., NOV. 15.—Fritz Kadis, twenty-nine years old, a real estate dealer, last night shot his brother, Ludwig, twenty-two years of age, and then killed himself. He left a letter for his father saying he thought he and his brother were a burden.

For a "Shakedown Cruise."

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—The Navy Department has ordered the cruiser Charleston, recently commissioned, to proceed to sea from Norfolk for a "shakedown cruise" outside the Virginia Capes.

Indians in Washington.

WASHINGTON, NOV. 15.—A delegation of Creek Indians having business with the Interior Department are in this city from Indian Territory and will remain until Congress opens. They are Chittoosah, Hualapah, Satal, Keemio, and Hippi.

Russian Exile Dead.

DENVER, NOV. 15.—Vladimir Moore, a Russian exile, founder of the "People's Will" party in Russia, died at the County Hospital here yesterday of cancer. Moore had escaped to America from Siberia after five years' service there for publishing an alleged seditious newspaper.

Sultan's Police Chief a Mark.

CONSTANTINOPLE, NOV. 15.—Fehmi Pasha, the Chief of the secret police of the palace, was intended to be the victim of yesterday's bomb outrage. The Pasha, however, escaped unscathed and the explosion did little damage.

Coast Defense Army Slim.

WASHINGTON, NOV. 15.—Gen. Samuel M. Miles, chief of artillery, says that for manning the coast defenses of the United States a force consisting of 1,700 officers and 41,833 enlisted men is needed, while the corps has at present only 53 officers and 13,744 men.

Oregon Called Home.

WASHINGTON, NOV. 15.—Orders have been given by the Navy Department or the return of the battleship Oregon from the Philippines to the United States at an early date. There is no indication that any battleship will be sent to the Asiatic station to replace the Oregon.

Safe Stops Court Order.

SPRINGFIELD, MASS., NOV. 15.—The town of Ludlow cannot obey a Court order to recount the vote for Lieutenant-Governor. The ballots are locked in a safe which a locksmith cannot open.

Chadwick Case to Washington.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 15.—Judge F. J. Wing, counsel for Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick, announced yesterday that an application for a writ of certiorari in her case would be made to the Supreme Court of the United States with a view to obtaining a review of Mrs. Chadwick's case before that tribunal.

JOCKEY SLOAN TO GO ON STAGE IN MONOLOGUE.

TOD SLOANE GOING INTO VAUDEVILLE

Hasn't Determined Whether to Wear Jockey Clothes or Dress Suit.

Tod Sloan is going into vaudeville. He is undecided whether to make his entrance in a jockey suit or in a dress suit. Of course, the dress suit would be more refined, but the jockey suit would give a great chance for some o'clock-cloak-cloak-cloak work off the stage, giving the audience the impression that Tod was advancing to the wings on horseback.

ARREST ON DEAD WOMAN'S SUMMONS

Member of Paul Kelly Association Oddly Accused at Parade.

That he might explain a few things, William Newyears, of No. 301 East One Hundred and Seventh street, was taken to the Harlem Court by the police to-day. He was arrested last night while parading with the Paul Kelly Association in Harlem. The association was on parade, advertising a ball to be held this evening. Newyears was taken from the ranks.

A few weeks ago a woman, whose body is still unidentified, was found dead in a hotel with a man. Both had died of asphyxiation. In her pockets was found a summons issued to Margie Lynch for Newyears.

WARRANT AWAITING INVALID.

Officer Ported at Hospital to Arrest Patient. (Special to The Evening World.) PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 15.—In the Germantown Hospital Thomas Darling is slowly recovering from an attack of Bright's disease. He is eagerly awaiting his discharge that he may go home to his wife and children. Just outside the door sits Police Officer Birchall, armed with a warrant, ready to arrest the old man the minute his steps from the room on a charge of forgery.

SONGBIRDS MATE "AROUND CORNER."

Conried's Protegee, Miss De Lorne, Wedded to Taurino Parvis, Baritone.

It was learned only to-day that Taurino Parvis, a handsome young baritone in Mr. Conried's company, and Miss Gladys De Lorne, a pretty member of the opera school, were quietly married by the Rev. Dr. Houghton in "The Little Church Around the Corner" on Saturday last. The bride is the daughter of the late Harry De Lorne. He left a letter to Mr. Conried, to be opened after death. The letter asked the manager to do what he could for his wife and daughter. Mr. Conried found the daughter to have a fine voice and she was entered in the school. She met Mr. Parvis when he came to this country and he fell in love with her. Their marriage was the sequel.

Piano Buying Is a Confidence.

Every piano we sell bears the manufacturer's name—this means a guarantee to you when purchasing a piano. Every piano in this sale has a great record, and is backed by Bloomingdale's Brothers, a well known piano maker. These pianos represent the highest type of piano construction. They were built by old, reliable expert piano builders, and fully guaranteed. A fact of this kind is a guarantee in itself. It is the only kind of every piano on record.

Our interests are our customers' interests.

We give you the advantage of our enormous purchasing power, turning every advantage over to you. This has been our policy ever since we started in business over three years ago.

We have revolutionized the piano business by placing it on a legitimate fair-profit basis, figuring on the same small margin of profit that governs every transaction at Bloomingdale's.

These pianos are to be found in the homes of some of the most representative American families, as well as in the studios of many of the most prominent professional people. Hundreds of unsolicited letters of praise will be shown you on request.

The pianos offered in this great sale are fitted with the finest actions; the scale is exceptionally even, with 7-1/2 octaves; cases are all of the newest designs and have been the object of much attention. Some are the most artistic in finish—rich and mellow and yet powerful—the touch is so elastic and responsive that a child can get a full, strong, rich tone without exertion.

New Exchange System—We'll exchange your old piano for a beautiful new one, and you may pay any balance due at the rate of $1 a week.

Upon request a representative will call on you. Warehouses, 3d floor.
